WHEREAS Debt Settlement USA provided services to 114 Vermont consumers, who paid a total in fees, after refunds, of over $230,000 to the company;

GENERAL

WHEREAS the Attorney General alleges that all of the above-described practices violated the Vermont Consumer Fraud Act’s prohibition on unfair and deceptive trade practices, 9 V.S.A. § 2453(a);

WHEREAS the Attorney General also alleges that although Debt Settlement USA offered consumers a right to cancel, the company’s disclosures of that right, and its exclusion of refunds for its processing fee, violated the right-to-cancel provisions of 9 V.S.A. § 2454 and Vermont Consumer Fraud Rule 113 for telephonic sales;

Dear _____:

I am writing to inform you that Debt Settlement USA has entered into a legal settlement with the Vermont Attorney General's Office. The Attorney General alleges that Debt Settlement USA violated Vermont law in several respects, including engaging in the business of debt adjustment without a required license.

Under the settlement, Debt Settlement USA is refunding to you all fees that you paid to Debt Settlement USA, as itemized on the enclosed sheet. In addition, if, while we were working for you, you were sued by one of the creditors enrolled in your program, we are enclosing a payment in the amount of an additional $2,000, as required by the settlement. If you were sued during that time but did not notify us of that fact, you will need to provide us with documentation of the lawsuit (for example, a copy of the complaint), which you may fax to [fax number] or mail to [mailing address] or email to [email address].

Under the settlement, Debt Settlement USA has also agreed, at your option, to complete its negotiations with your creditors, at no charge to you, and to make all reasonable efforts to settle those debts for no more than 50 percent of the enrolled amount due. If you would like us to do that, please call or email us as directed above as soon as you can; otherwise, we will assume that you do not want us to continue our settlement efforts.
