Bankruptcy

Bankruptcy is the process where a person legally declares that they are unable to pay outstanding debts. Depending upon the type of bankruptcy filed, one meets with a judge to determine a payment schedule, or have a legal bankruptcy discharge most if not all debts.

Bankruptcy should be avoided if possible as it may have severe consequences on ones credit and may appear as a public record.

Countrywide Debt Relief offers a great alternative to Bankruptcy. Contact us to see what we can do to help !

DISCLAIMER: Anyone considering bankruptcy should consult a bankruptcy attorney. Debt negotiation only applies to debts enrolled in a Debt Settlement program with CountryWide Debt Relief. Not all debts can be settled and not all creditors negotiate. Individual results may vary and are based on the ability of clients to save funds and successfully complete their Debt Settlement program terms. Debt Settlement programs nor CountryWide Debt Relief do not assume or pay any consumer debt and do not provide tax or legal advice. Debt Settlement programs are not available in all states. Read and understand all Debt Settlement contract terms prior to enrollment.
